

Guest Hosts

Heather Borgens - Former Blazer Dancer/Lumberjax Dancer

Heather has a diverse background in dance, music and theater and grew up performing in over 16 musicals, dancing for the elite Jefferson Dancers and was a member of the Portland Trail Blazer Dancers for five years. She graduated with a Criminal Justice Degree in Oklahoma and is currently an Investigator for a major Corporation. She is recently married and lives in Portland, Oregon.

Shel Bailey - Charlie FM Personality

Shel is a broadcaster, reporter, and entertainer, and 15 year veteran of the radio broadcasting industry. Working as a syndicated morning news/comedy show host, assistant program director, and music director. In addition to working with PDXposed, Shel is currently on air as Charlie Girl for 97.1 Charlie FM and is also the station's Promotion and Marketing Director. On her spare time she is a writer and photographer for The Sentinel newspaper, Shel has won several Society of Professional Journalism awards.

Because she's just not busy enough, Shel also plays bass, saxophone and sings for her band The Big Package. She has a technical degree in Broadcasting, a degree in Journalism and Business Management. Her hobbies include plate scraping, yoga, growing tomatoes, and staring at the sun.